

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Summer Academy in Architecture and Urban Studies in Paris

June 1 - July 31, 2026

- Seize this 9-week opportunity with a French peer partner
- Engage in visits, seminars and workshops
- Intern at a prestigious architecture or urban planning agency
- Immerse yourself in Paris

Implemented since 2023 by Villa Albertine, the Cultural and Educational Services of the French Embassy in the US, this program is designed to inspire a new generation of students committed to innovation and change in architecture and urban planning. Sponsored by Saint-Gobain, the global leader in light and sustainable construction, this program offers students the opportunity to engage in a 9-week cultural and professional experience in Paris.

Thanks to the support of

Eligibility

- Master's students at the time of the application (during the fall 2025)
- Students enrolled in architecture or urban planning programs from any American university
- Mastery of French is not required

Program highlights

Image courtesy of Saint-Gobain

- 1 week of visits, seminars and workshops to discover the rich urban ecosystem of Paris
- A 8-week internship : get involved in a renowned architecture or urban planning agency in Paris

$500 participation fees including*

- Internship placement
- Cultural visits, workshops and seminars
- Private accommodation at Maison des Élèves Ingénieurs Arts et Métiers (14th district of Paris)
- Health and liability insurance

Excluding airfare, daily living expenses and local transportation*

Apply for Architecture by 11/19/2025
Apply for Urban Planning by 11/19/2025

Find more details on the program's website
All inquiries should be sent to chicago@villa-albertine.org